From the Russelville Herald. MARRIED.

On Tuesday afternoon, December 14th, 1875, our worthy friend and effieient Sheriff, Geo. T. Price, in compa-ny with Messrs. Monroe McClean, Will T. Owens, Robt. M. Warden and see. Arriving in Clarksville late in the evening, they spent the night in that goodly old town, and early next morning proceeded in buggies to the residence of Mr. J. C. Allensworth that goodly old town, and early next morning proceeded in buggies to the residence of Mr. J. C. Allensworth, some nine or ten miles out from Clarksville. They got there about ten o clock, and after some little brushing up proceeded to the parlor, where Mr. Price was united in matrimosy to one of Montgomery's fairest and loveliest daughters, Miss Sue E. Allensworth.

As attendants to the bride we noticed. As attendants to the bride we noticed the genial and pleasant Miss - Alensworth, who waited with Mr. Warden; the coyish and pretty Miss Willie Allensworth, who waited with Mr. Owens; the stately and accomplished Miss Bowman, who waited with Mr. McClean; and the lively, roguish, and talented Miss Ella Smith, whose smile was as happy as a scraph's dream and whose bearing was quite as graceful as a fawn, just that mixture of shyness and sweetness, insinuation and reserve. that is so calculated to make one do just as our friend Price—get married. Miss Smith waited with Mr. Rhea. After the ceremony, some little time was spent in receiving the congratula-tions of relatives and friends, when the bridal party proceeded to Clarksville, in buggies, to take the train for But, alas! when we reached Clarksville, we had to part with our lady attendants, and "oh the parting gave us pain" The party got home Wednesday evening. The Sheriff, of course, bringing his prisoner, locked securely in the chains of his manly love and guarded by his faithful attendants. Wednesday night while the bridal party, together with a few friends, were assembled in the parlor of Gray's Hotel, they were called to partake of a feast of good things that had been prepared by that "King of Hosts," S. B. Ryan, assisted by his elegant lady. We shall not attempt to describe the table, but rest in saying that all was substantial, together with the daintiest luxury, abounded in profusion and arrayed in such manner as to tempt the "inner man" to the utmost; but we will stop, for we feel now, and felt then, our great inability to do the table justice. We never felt like marrying before, but when we looked at the table, we thought we would be willing to sacrifice our liberty and enter the marriage state once a day, if we could get such suppers ourselves. Blake knows how to feed and make his guests comfortable, and we advise everybody to marry and board with him, and if you won't marry, come and see him anyhow J. S. R.

There must be a premium exacted by dealer for the risk he runs in trusting his goods to that class of more or less dangerous customers, who never pay ready money. On the other hand, there is something in facility of credit, removing as it does the disagreeable necessity of payment to a vague future, very seductive to the buyer, who can gratify his love of possession with a momentary sense at any rate, that its gratification costs him nothing. We cla'm for the above Machine the following points of superiority over any Washing Machine ever manufactured. Its price, $8.00, places it within the reach of every one. The simplicity of its construction, being so made that if any part of the machine should be broken, any one can repair it with a knife and hatchet in a few minutes. Its easy movement, which enables any lady to wash with perfect case to herself. It will save the price of a Machine to the purchaser in a short time by the rapidity with which it does the work. It has only to be seen to be appreciated. It does its work without injury to the most delicate fabric, which is not the case with any other machine now before the public. The Machine can be seen at Tamley & Elder's and Fox & Smith's Clarksville, and at D. W. Scott & Co.'s, New Prov'd nee. Numerous first-class certificates can be furnished. A few we offer—others give., on application: Clarksville, Tenn., Dec. 2, 1875.

To the Farmer's Manufacturing Co.: After seeing the Humboldt Washer tested with ome of the heaviest of Washing, I purchased one, which has been in use one month.—pronounce it a perfect success. It is, in fact, "washing imade easy," or the woman's riend. It is the only washing machine I have seen that does its work well.

I was present during the trial of the Humboldt Washer, in the hands of Mr. J. R. Martin, and am perfectly satisfied that it will do all that he claims for it, washing the clothes with dispatch, and without damaging them in the least.
